On Saturday September 14th the Country Music Highway Starcase and Museum in cooperation with the Lawrence County Tourism Commission celebrated the addition of 4 new artists to the Country Music Highway Signs located along US 23.

The event began at the Lawrence County line where Lawrence County native and recording artist Yvonne Jordan unveiled the addition of her name to CMH Marker.

The crowd proceeded to the Boyd County line where Boyd County Native and recording artist Julie Reeves celebrated the addition of her name to the CMH Marker.

After the unveilings, friends, family and fans gathered at the Kentucky Pavillion at Falls Creek in Louisa for a reception. The crowd was greeted by the inspiring sight of the Louisa Volunteer Fire Department flying a massive 30x40 foot American flag.

Wes Kingsmore of the Lawrence County Tourism Commission greeted the crowd and introduced local artist Maddox Hale, who entertained the crowd.

Country Music Highway Legend Don Riggsby honors Yvonne Jordan and Julie Reeves.

The CMH Starcase also recognized Floyd County natives Teddi Cyrus and JoJo Hall who were inducted earlier this Summer.

Eric Clevenger and Country artist Bobby Cyrus honors Grammy Winner and CMH Starcase Artist Don Rigsby for his outstanding achievements in Music and his dedication to Community.

The Country Music Highway Starcase and Museum also unveiled the newest addition to their GuitarTown Collection. This 10 foot guitar honors CMH Star Chris Stapleton. The guitar will be placed on the grounds of the Kentucky Pavilion at Falls Creek among the other curated pieces of GuitarTown Art.

The night ended with an autograph and photo session for fans.
